Announcement of new Baumberger Scholars

About the Endowment

The Baumberger Endowment was established in the Last Will and Testament of Charles Baumberger, Jr. (1889-1968).

Mr. Baumberger was a lifetime resident of San Antonio and a former President of the Board of San Antonio Portland Cement Company. His father was one of the founders of San Antonio Portland Cement Company and one of the organizers of Bexar County National Bank. Charles Baumberger, Jr. and his wife, Gene, had no children. After providing for his wife during her lifetime, Mr. Baumberger stipulated in his Will that the income from his fortune be devoted to the education in the basic arts and sciences of Texas' youth.

The Endowment is guided by specific requirements stated in Mr. Baumberger's Will and by policies set by the Trustees of the Endowment.
